About IRMO

IRMO works to enable the development, agency, and participation of Latin Americans and other Spanish and Portuguese speakers, by responding to both immediate needs and structural inequalities. We do this by offering high-quality information and advice services, opportunities for development and training, and a platform to seek social and systemic change. Our work is organised across three main operational areas - Advice and Casework; Education, Training and Employment; Children and Young People - and a cross-cutting area - Advocacy, Research, Policy Mapping and Campaigning. More information at www.irmo.org.uk.

About the Area

Our programme of support for recently arrived Latin American children and young people ensures that our young service users can have the best possible start in the UK. We offer English language classes and homework support, advice & advocacy to access mainstream education and statutory services, learning workshops for young people and targeted mentoring for education and employment. Children and young people at IRMO can access the following activities:

- English for Speaker of Other Languages (ESOL): children and young people can learn English through targeted ESOL classes tailored to age, language abilities and learning needs.

- Advice & Advocacy: parents can access one to one advice, practical support and workshops on school admissions as well as access to healthcare, welfare and other basic needs.
- Individual Mentoring: children can find the support they need to overcome educational challenges and young people can plan their next steps into employment.
- Group Learning Workshops: young people can learn new skills, socialise, explore career paths and get exposure to industries of interest through a weekly provision of inspirational, theme based and creative workshops.

About the Role

We are looking for a dedicated volunteer to teach English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) to children and young people aged 5-19. The volunteer will support the planning and deliver weekly creative ESOL classes for three age groups: 5-8, 8-12 and 13-19 year olds. The volunteer will help non-native English-speaking children and young people improve their language skills in a supportive, engaging, and fun environment.

Main tasks and responsibilities

- Prepare and Deliver Lessons: Plan and deliver engaging English language lessons tailored to young learners' levels and needs, focusing on speaking, listening, reading, and writing.
- Create a Positive Learning Environment: Foster an inclusive, encouraging space where children feel safe to practise English and ask questions.
- Support Language Development: Use age-appropriate resources, activities, and games to help children build vocabulary, pronunciation, and confidence in using English.
- Monitor Progress: Track each child's progress and adjust lesson plans as necessary to meet individual learning needs.

We are looking for someone who is/has:

- Verbal and written communication skills in English and either Spanish and/or Portuguese;
- A flexible and enthusiastic person who is confident in working in a multicultural and multilingual environment;
- Good IT skills, including in using Microsoft and Google suite packages, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and databases;
- Good interpersonal and communication skills and attention to detail;

- A caring, sensitive and non-judgemental manner;
- Knowledge of how to deal with sensitive and confidential information;
- Ability to learn quickly and adapt to CRM systems.

Additional requirements

- Two references from current/previous employers;
- Enhanced DBS Check (completed through IRMO);
- Safeguarding Level 1 certificate (completed through IRMO);
- One month trial period.

Benefits from volunteering at IRMO

- Gives the opportunity of helping others and to give back;
- Creates an ideal space to learn new skills in a multicultural, cooperative and inspiring environment;
- Get involved with the Latin American Community and increase knowledge of the situation of Latin American migrants in the UK;
- Helps to gain experience and strengthen previous skills to face UK's competitive job market;
- Enhance CV and get references (after a 3-month period) for further impact on the employment status;
- Participate in training sessions with high-quality learning outcomes (in-house and external) in areas related to the role;
- Receive regular supervision and support.
